

CGC Weekly News Bulletin

20th January 2012

Course News

- The new steps and path extension by the 7th tee have been completed
- The drainage work across the 5th fairway has been started
- The tree trimming will continue next week
- The new leaf sweeper has now been delivered

Other News

The deadline for the Winter League group stage is this weekend. Please ensure that all your results have been posted as there are numerous pairs with more than one match result outstanding.

The entry sheets for the Braiswick Cup, Plate; Jubilee Cup and Mens Foursomes Knockout competitions are now on the main noticeboard. Please pay your entry fee at the bar when you put your name down. Please also be aware that, as they are boarded competitions, entrants must have played in three qualifying events in the previous 12 months to be eligible. To ensure you (and your partner) are eligible, contact the office. If you have not played in three qualifying events your name will not be entered into the draw.

It is not too late to participate in the Wine Tasting Course starting from Thursday 16th February. It is a six week course sampling wines from all over France. If you would like to attend, please contact the office. There are still seven places available.

If you're free on Friday 3rd February why not come along to the Afternoon Bridge Drive starting at 2.00pm? All levels of ability are welcome to play.

Spaces are available for the next Away Day at Waldringfield GC on Friday 24th February. There will be coffee and bacon rolls on arrival, followed by 18 holes and a one course meal afterwards. The sheet is in the mens changing room.

The sheet for the Valentines Carvery on Sunday 12th February is now on the main noticeboard. Book now to avoid disappointment!